

for Andy and Rosie and for baby Danny to be in the main house, but it is something we are not used to!

Please write again to tell me your news, I am hopeful to see you again soon.

Peace of God be with you,

Love,

Erma

No hand print today, Jacob is napping!

Dear friends Janet, Alex, Anna, Colin and Jip,

I'm so glad you enjoyed the beets and marmalade! We are thankful to clear the shelves to allow for new bounty. This week, weather and God willing, we are ready to put up elderberries. Have you ever tried this sour jam? We will do this at Mary's house.
Eli's Sara and children will come to help,
but Eli will be taking a buggy to Charm
to pick up a saddle for the new horse.
It's a surprise, but we all know about! Mary is having church next week, so we will help her prepare, as well as chores.

Since your visit Grandmamm finished the quilt on which she worked. It is beautiful and will go for sale in a few weeks.
Grandmamm is already talking about a new one to start.

The only other news is that Mam and Da are all settled into the side house. It is better

Dear friend Janet & Family, 6-19-29

Greetings to all in His Name.

This is Fri. morn. Very dreary and is starting to rain which we are thankful for. — Janet, I'm Sorry I missed you at Dutchman's. It would've been a treat for me to see you at the Restaurant!

I worked Wed. morn. as I had plans for the eve. And we received your Card on the 16th which would've been bro. Jacob's Birth. So it made your letter Special to us!

Your thoughtfulness to remember me at the Restaurant is greatly appreciated! I feel Blest — May God Bless you for your Kindness.

The way your letter Sounds your Children are enjoying the Summer Vacation.

And you as A teacher, ^{mother} I'm sure there's never a dull moment! And your Class/Summer institute, Sounds quite interesting. Wonder what grade class this is?

Janet, did you know Dad, Mom, bro Sam & we are now living in the Small house? Since Feb. It has been lots of work for Andy's & us to move around, but we like it.

Thanks ^{It} is more convenient You for them (as farmers) to live in the big house.

Dad & Sam Still help with the farming in eve. Dad is working at Keim Lumber & Sam at a nearby Wood Shop.

The Rest. Certainly has picked up Since Schools are out. Which is lots to be thankful for. It was pretty slow during the winter month.

We hope to see you all with Cathy's sometime soon!

Thanks again for the Card! Special Wishes to all of you.

Love, Amanda Miller

Hello all,

Christmas greetings! Hope all is well your way. Here we are well and going. Lots to give thanks.

Cathy informed me on all your activities. Anna has a boyfriend.
My, how the kids are growing up.

I guess so are ours. Yvonne is out of school. She is helping out at neighbor's night now. They had a baby (1st old). David is in 6th gr.
Marilyn in 3rd, Jack in 2nd. An Marilyn can't wait to go next year
in kindergarten.

Well I must desert, have more cards to get ready.

Love,
Mary

Jim, Janet + family.

Christmas time is here --
the best time
of the whole year!

Merry Christmas

Blessed holidays
